

West Virginia Woodland Owners Fall Meeting

This is a great chance to meet with other woodland stewards. Meeting with other woodland owners allows you to find ways to work smarter, worry less, and enjoy your woods more.

Date: Saturday, November 12, 2011

Location: Sutton, WV

Registration: $10; includes lunch

Woodland owners meet at a recent WOA regional field workshop in Morgan County

9:30 a.m. Registration and ice breaker...

10:00 a.m. Introduction

Tim Fink, Moderator & WV WOA President

10:05 a.m. Allegheny Mountain Naturals and other interesting ethnobotanical topics

Mimi Hernandez, Director--Appalachian Center for Ethnobotanical Studies

11:00 a.m. Some basics of forest mushrooms

Dr. Dan Panaccione, Professor of Mycology and Genetics

12 noon Lunch – Current timber markets in WV, Dr. Ben Spong, WVU Extension Service

1:00 p.m. The ABCs of Conservation Easements

Joe Hatton, WV NRCS Easement Specialist

1:30 p.m. Do foresters matter? The influence of professional foresters on NIPF timber harvests in WV

Dr. Stuart Moss, WVU Assistant Professor of Forest Business

2:30 p.m. Optional field trip (TBA)

3:30 p.m. Safe trip home....

For more information or to RSVP contact Dan Magill (304-293-9419; dmagill@wvu.edu).

To register, you can pay at the door (cash or checks only please) or send a check to Ed Murriner at the WV Woodland Owners Association by October 31, 2011.

Woodland owners meet at a recent WOA regional field workshop in Calhoun County

Sponsored by:

Extension Service
West Virginia University

